ORKC Beginner Obedience, Tues 7:00

As everyone can see, this was a happy class! Through positive training, all of the dogs learned every single exercise.

Because these students were such great trainers, we even had time to practice the agility tunnel and a trick. The instructors believe this class was exceptional!

Pictured are the students that finished the class: Karen Plum and Sophie; Keri Jackson and Izzy; Michelle Powell and Dante; Lou Ambrosia and Inkie; Betty Dreyer and Christy; Steven James and Vida.

Thank you all for the great class!

In Memoriam

*Dogs' lives are too short ... their only fault, really. ~
A.S. Turnbull*

A Tribute to
Angel's Cameo de Esprit, UD, RE, MX,
MXJ, AXP, AJP, NFP

Our precious Cameo slipped away gently cradled in her mommy's lap, just 2 ½ weeks before her 14th birthday. Cameo loved everyone and made many special friends at ORKC. We know several families who have added a sheltie pet because they knew Cameo. Everywhere she went, people told us "what a sweet face" she had.

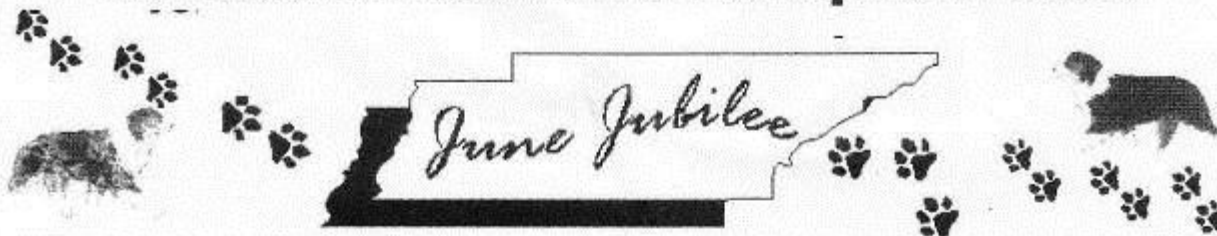

Cameo earned 21 AKC titles with 43 first place wins, 12 seconds, 6 third placements, 2 fourth place finishes, and 20 "simple green" Qs. Two of her titles were master titles (each requiring 10 perfect scores_) and six of her titles were earned with her very special "cousin" and junior handler, Erin Jones.

You can train a dog to do many things, but the attitude and spirit come from deep in the dog's heart – Cameo had it all. Cameo enjoyed obedience and brought a smile to the face of many a judge when she announced with a single triumphant bark that she had completed her part of an obedience finish. Cameo's greatest love was agility. Her skills even brought her a modeling "job" and her image running the weave poles is still published in many pet catalogs advertising a line of agility equipment.

Through the years, we have loved (and lost) many dear pets, including some very special dogs, but the greatest of these was Cameo! We loved her dearly, we miss her terribly, and we will always treasure the many wonderful memories of her life with us.

Ditto

Ditto & Daisy

Ditto and Daisy

BISS GCH Derby's X Marks The Spot, "Ditto", is having an outstanding year with both of his handlers. Since handler Wendi Brown has been away on maternity leave, owner Debbie Echols has been showing Ditto. Together, they've shown Ditto to 6 Working Group placements, a specialty win, and enough breed wins to make him #1 Greater Swiss Mountain Dog in the nation, and he just turned 3 in May.

Little sister GCH Derby's Xotic Daisy O'Spot, "Daisy", never to be ignored, came out of her sabbatical long enough to finish her Grand Championship.

Mac McFadden is improving steadily and has been taking care of Ditto's back packing walks.

Thanks,
Debbie Echols

AM/U-CH Sun-Kiss Roxy, CD, RE, NAJ

U-CH Sun-Kiss Ulrika

“The Flying Dutchwomen”

AM/U-CH Sun-Kiss Roxy, CD, RE earned her first agility title at the Oak Ridge Kennel Club Trial in Harriman, fulfilling her puppyhood dream. She earned 3 perfect scores for 1st place.

This is the 1st agility title for Sun-Kiss Keeshonden bred by Donna and Ernest Williams of Oak Ridge, TN. Roxy is owned, trained, and handled by Kathy Bladen. Thanks for everyone who helped us along the way!

In addition, Sun-Kiss Ulrika, CGC earned her UKC championship at the Carolina Classic in Hickory, NC. Rika did a great job representing her breed, earning two Group 1 and one Group 2 placements. Now to obtain that illusive last AKC major!

Thanks,
Kathy Bloden
