

Smoky Mountain Reading Council
For the Love of Reading
February 26, 2009

The Smoky Mountain Reading Council is hosting its annual For the Love of Reading Day, to be held on Thursday, February 26, 2009. We will be going to seven locations which host YMCA after school daycare programs. We need volunteer readers, five to ten per site. The students will be elementary age (K-5). You can bring your own favorite story or we will have a selection from which to choose. We will be reading from 4:00 to 5:00 in the afternoon. The sites are:

Beaumont Magnet Elementary School
Fountain City Elementary School
Green Magnet Academy
Pleasant Ridge Elementary School
Sarah Moore Greene Elementary School
Spring Hill Elementary School
Sunnyview Primary School

For the Love of Reading Day promotes reading for everyone. This is an opportunity to reach children who may have had few experiences of this type. Your support is greatly appreciated. If you can participate, please contact Beth Eades.
